First Sunday of Advent

Scripture is # 879 in the Journeysongs Hymnal

FROM FATHER DREW....Happy First Sunday on Advent!!! I truly love this time of year! I like the snow, and the lights, and the spirit of this season.

As we await with joyful expectation that Christmas Day, once again, I hope that you accomplish some spiritual goal this advent. Advent can go by so fast, so perhaps just make it a small goal. Maybe you are already working on one now or maybe you haven't decided yet. Either way, I promise Christmas will be more fulfilling if we accomplish something spiritually or personally beneficial.

Perhaps it's reading a spiritual book, like the life of a saint, for example. Perhaps it's just making sure to go to Mass on the feast of the Immaculate Conception. Perhaps it's going to Confession, fasting from food or technology, or maybe spending time with the Lord in Adoration. My Advent is always so much more joyful when I make space for Jesus. I hope you experience this as well.

CONFESSIONS: During Advent Fr. Drew will be offering an additional opportunity for confession — Wednesday's at 5:30 –6:00 p.m..

Waiting for the Light

In Advent, we are made aware that the hours of darkness are lengthening. The days grow shorter. Night seems to consume the world. Perhaps we feel the darkness in our own hearts, our own lives, our own prayer: we look for some sign of God and see nothing. Perhaps we are oppressed by the darkness of the world around us; we notice the poor living without shelter on our streets, we hear the cry of the hungry, we are alerted to wars and rumors of war. We yearn to see the day when Christ will come in all his glory to put an end to darkness of every kind. It has been said that in Advent we live in the night with our faces turned toward the unseen dawn. Hosea reminds us of the central conviction of the Advent spirit: as certain as the dawn is his coming.

Let us pray in hope for the rising of the Sun.
